vs.)	ORDER to SHOW CAUSE

T. D. GENSLER, M.D., et al.,)

Defendants.)

This matter is before the court sua sponte. It appears to the court that this case may have been abandoned, as the plaintiff has failed to notify the court of his current address, and the court has learned that the plaintiff has been released from the Douglas County Correctional Center after filing his complaint. As the court advised the plaintiff in the Prisoner Payment Order, the plaintiff has an obligation to keep the court informed of his current address at all times while this case is pending.

Therefore, the Clerk of Court shall send this Order to Show Cause to the plaintiff at the plaintiff's last known address in the court's records, with the notation "please forward" on the outside of the envelope. By February 15, 2007, the plaintiff shall show cause in writing why this case should not be dismissed, without prejudice, for lack of prosecution.¹ In the absence of a timely and sufficient response to this Order to Show Cause, the above-entitled case may be subject, without further notice, to dismissal without prejudice by District Judge Richard G. Kopf.

SO ORDERED.

DATED this 26th day of January, 2007.

BY THE COURT:

s/ F. A. GOSSETT
United States Magistrate Judge

¹See NECivR 41.1, which states in pertinent part: "At any time when it appears that any action is not being prosecuted with reasonable diligence the court may dismiss it for lack of prosecution."
